CONFEDERATE VETERANS' BANQUET.—All the arrangements for the reunion and banquet of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, Monday night, have been made, and an enjoyable time is anticipated by all who propose to attend.

Old Fellows' Hall has been appropriately and tastefully decorated for the occasion, and Mr. Batheeler of the Exchange and Ballard House, who is to be the caterer, has left nothing undone which could in any way add to the comfort of the inner man.

The menu will be as follows: Oysters, fried and stewed; olives, mixed pickles, cold tongue, turkey, cranberry sauce; cold ham, chicken and lobster salad; cold slaw, celery, carrots, chips, wine and strawberry jelly, bananas, oranges, apples, melons, grapes, lemons, strawberries and vanilla cream; cold jelly cake, cigars, coffee and punch.

Cap. Thomas Perry is chairman of the committee of arrangements. Tickets, $1 which can be had from the committee or members of the camp. The doors of the hall will be opened to ladies of the Confederate organizations of the city at 8:30 o'clock.

FIRE.—About half-past eight o'clock last night an alarm of fire was sounded, caused by the discovery that a building on Ben. Bagge's premises, near Hood's run, on King street, was burning.

The alarm was responded to, and a large crowd gathered in the neighborhood. Fire extinguishers belonging to the respective companies soon extinguished the flames and prevented what might have proven an extensive conflagration.

The fire was caused by an overheated furnace which set fire to some of the woodwork of the building. Half an hour later another alarm was sent in and the engines repaired to the residence of Mr. W. P. Graves, on Fairfax street, near Franklin.

A bureau was found on fire in a room on the second floor. It is supposed to have caught from a candle which had burned out. The bureau was thrown out and several articles of clothing that were burning were extinguished with pails of water. The damage in each instance was small.

During the progress of the fire Mr. Graves was overcome by smoke, but was soon revived. There have been four fires in this city so far this week, the first being on north Fairfax street, the second on Jefferson street, between Washington and Columbus, and the two last night.

INSTALLATION.—Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church South held a meeting last night. Mr. Alvin Powell made an address, after which the installation of recently elected officers was conducted by Mr. Frank J. Pollard as follows: Harvey Atkinson, President; James Nails, First Vice President; Mrs. George Warfield, Second Vice President; Mrs. Martha Rains, Third Vice President; Lucian G. Smith, Secretary; Miss Beattie Boyer, Treasurer; Miss Anna Summers, Librarian. B. B. Kemp was the retiring president. These officers will serve during the next six months.

Stops the Cough and Works Off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Don't Live Together. Constipation and health never go together. Dr. Williams' Little Early Remedy cures action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with constipation nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depaw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Remedy gives best results."

CERTIFICATES RECORDED.—Today there was recorded in the Corporation Court forty-two certificates of sale of delinquent property which was sold November 21, 1899 and not redeemed. At that time several hundred pieces of property were listed for sale, but prior to sale all had been paid but eighty-four pieces for which certificates of sale were filed in the Auditor's office. Section 32 of the charter provides: In case any real estate struck off to the city, as hereinafter provided, shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the City Auditor shall, within sixty days after the expiration of two years from the date of sale, cause to be recorded such certificate of sale, with his oath that the same has not been redeemed, and thereupon the said corporation shall acquire an absolute title to the same in fee. Forty-two pieces have been redeemed in the two years between date of sale and today, and the other forty-two are now recorded after waiting the limit. The price redeemed represent more in money than those recorded. $3,628.00 has been paid upon account of the property redeemed, and of this amount $152 was for interest charged. Of course the recording of certificates will add to the burden of the delinquent, as it costs money to place it on record, and money to release it.

POLICE COURT.—William Craig, colored, was fined $5 this morning for disorderly conduct and threatening bodily harm to Gertrude Evans, also colored. It was alleged that the accused brandished a razor.

A soldier who gave him name as George H. Cook was arrested for being drunk in the street. He had been taken into custody by Officers Smith and Hall while wandering aimlessly through the street last night. Two officers came here from Fort Myer this afternoon and conducted him back to that post.

A white man, charged with assaulting an acquaintance, forfeited $10 collateral by failing to appear when the case was called.

Henry Cavanaugh was fined $20 for assaulting a woman named Lillie Lewis in a house on north Lee street. The evidence showed that the accused had been living in Washington and Baltimore at times and that about three weeks ago he came here and took up his abode on north Lee street. The Mayor in imposing the fine said if he gave any further trouble he would arrest him under the vagrant act.

NARROW ESCAPE OF OLD LANDMARK.—The two old dilapidated Scotch-roof houses on the east side of Alfred street, between Prince and Duke, had a narrow escape from destruction last night during the interval between the two alarms caused by the fire in Mr. Benjamin Baggett's barn and that in Mr. W. P. Graves's residence. It seems that the occupants of one of the houses placed a well-seasoned Christmas tree in the fireplace and ignited it. A column of fire soon protruded from the chimney and set fire to a portion of the roof. Neighbors who were soon on the spot subdued the flames and no alarm was turned in. These houses have been falling into decay for many years and now form an unsightly spectacle and wretched as they are between modern and neat residences. They belong to the estate of a colored man named Solomon, and his heirs have either been unable or indisposed to keep them in repair. The City Council recently instituted measures to ascertain the names of the owners with the view of having the buildings removed, but so far nothing has been accomplished toward that end.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. Milton Fairfax and H. G. Williams were in the city today, the guests of Mr. C. B. Davis.

Asterman N. P. T. Burke, of this city, and Miss Jane Ryner Reynolds were married in Boston today. Mr. Burke has been the residence of Mrs. C. F. Lee, on Duke street, which he will make his home for the present.

Cap. W. H. Smith, who has been quite sick for the past month, is improving.

Mr. B. Wheat continues quite ill at his home on Duke street.

Mr. Will H. Charles, of Alexandria, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. A. M. Whitlock, on east High street. Miss Elizabeth Under, of Alexandria, who has been visiting Mrs. Henry W. Lewis, of this city, returned home Friday morning. Ex-Mayor Henry Strauss, of Alexandria, returned home Thursday after a short visit to Mrs. Phil. Lesterman, on east High street.—[Charlottesville Progress.]

Mr. James R. Caton, of this city, a member of the House of Delegates, was in Richmond yesterday.

ROBBING BREAD BOXES.—Storekeepers again complain of the robbery of bread boxes in front of their places of business during the early morning hours. Twenty-seven pounds were stolen from the box in front of Mr. William Rodgers' store, corner of King and Commerce streets, this morning. This robbery is said to have been committed by an unknown colored woman, who was seen by a neighbor at the box. Several pounds of bread are missing from these receptacles nearly every morning, and it is supposed the thieves have provided themselves with keys which fit the locks.

A DELIGHTFUL GERMAN.—The German given by the young ladies of Alexandria each year has come to be regarded as one of the most delightful events of the season, and the one given by them last night at McBurney's Hall reflected much credit on the committee in charge. The German was led by Mr. Taylor Burke who introduced a number of novel and pretty figures. The dance was largely attended and many out of town persons were present.

Rev. W. F. Bain, a retired minister of the M. E. Church South, died at his home in Charlottesville last night after a short illness, aged 72 years. He was the father of Mr. W. E. Bain, of this city.

How to Cure Croup. Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amelia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

STOP THE COUGH AND WORKS OFF THE COLD. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Don't Live Together. Constipation and health never go together. Dr. Williams' Little Early Remedy cures action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with constipation nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depaw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Remedy gives best results."

A. L. FAIR.—Among the handsome donations to the Infantry fair the following are arousing much enthusiasm: Silver service by Castleberg Jewelry Co., punch bowl by Mr. M. B. Harlow ladies' watch by Mr. John A. Marshall, dress suit case by Sika & Co., man's bath robe by Linsburgh & Co. One clock and 2 candle sticks by Acton, clock by Robt. Portner Brewing Co. A large number of other contributions are receiving much admiration. All will be officially acknowledged in the Gazette.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—H. B. Caton was appointed administrator of Thomas Stollard, deceased, and N. S. Greenaway, E. M. Reed and W. S. Kaus were appointed appraisers.

In the Corporation Court yesterday Frank C. Creighton qualified as administrator of Mary Creighton, deceased. A decree was entered confirming partition of property in the chancery suit of Creighton vs. Creighton.

EXPOSE OF SPIRITUALISM.—Rev. Dr. H. C. Browne, assisted by his wife, will give an interesting exhibition at the Opera House tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock. They will explain the tricks of spiritists—table rapping, cabinet voices, seances, &c. Those who have attended these exhibitions say they are very entertaining.

HOLIDAY.—The nineteenth day of January, General Lee's birthday, falling this year on Sunday, and the day being a legal holiday in Virginia, Monday will be observed as such. The banks and city offices will be closed and the public schools will be given holiday, but otherwise business will go on about as usual.

CONTRACT.—The contract for erecting the fence around the Confederate cemetery at Groveton, has been awarded to Mr. W. H. Demaine, of Alexandria, Va., for the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars. The fence is to be of wrought iron, set in granite blocks.—[Manassas Journal.]

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Special sale of hosiery next week at Schwarz's, 518 King street. Don't miss it.

A new postoffice has been established at Belair, Alexandria county, with Hobart A. Smoot postmaster.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Chester Lerne Smith and Nellie Barigie Shawen, both of Oakton, Fairfax county.

Alexandria Council, No. 627, Royal Arcanum, held a special meeting last night in Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street, at which one candidate was initiated.

The property on the north side of King street between St. Asaph and Washington was sold today by Mr. R. F. Knox, auctioneer, to Mrs. E. E. Fleming for $1,250.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha B. Gardner, wife of Louis F. Gardner, whose death occurred in Washington Thursday, took place this afternoon from the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The Baptist Young People's Union of the Baptist Church held a largely attended meeting in that church last night. Interesting papers on "Missions in China" were read by several persons present.

Isaac Eichberg & Son advertise a stock of bedspreads which they will dispose of at low figures. Their stock of standard dry goods is large and attractive, and they invite an inspection from purchasers.

The Young Men's Sociality Lyceum will have a complimentary entertainment to their friends on Monday night, January 27, at the hall on Duke street. Some of the best talent of this city and Washington will take part in the programme, and all who attend are promised an enjoyable evening.

It is said that the steamer Columbia, of the Washington ferry line, will be taken to Baltimore shortly, where she will be materially altered and renovated. It is also reported that she will be equipped with electric lights.

Mrs. Patton, who fell on the ice in the yard of her residence, on upper Prince street, Thursday night, broke one of her hip bones. Today she was taken to Belle Haven Hospital for treatment.

There was a small showing of country produce in the market this morning. Prices had undergone no material change since last week. Comparatively few buyers were in attendance.

A woodshed in Mr. Ernest Vernon's yard, corner of Groveton and Henry streets, caught fire yesterday evening, but was extinguished before much damage had been done.

Lily F. Wade has sold to Mary A. Bennett one-half interest in a house and lot on the north side of Prince street, between Fayette and Payne, for $300.

A colored man named Nicholas Parker was found dead at his home near Bush Hill, Fairfax county, yesterday. His funeral will take place in this city Monday.

The new tugboat to be used between Washington this city and Forts Hunt and Washington will arrive here in the next few weeks.

Two tugboats with a tow of nine oyster boats from the lower river passed by for Washington this evening.

There is no change in affairs on the river. Much ice is still drifting up and down the channel.

Miss Jessie Tabler, of Washington, will sing a solo at the M. E. Church South, tomorrow night.

Nine lodgers were at the station house last night.
